

ROUTINE MARKS FIRST SESSION

Temporary Organization Approved and Keynote Heard.

ADJOURNED TO TODAY

Second Session Will Be Held at 1 p. m.; Irish Woman Offers Objection.

Continued from page one.
Interruption by the clamor of approval that greeted every thrust at the republicans by any reference to President Wilson.

When Chairman Homer S. Cummings of the national committee had been elected temporary chairman and addressed to the platform they finally hushed and prepared to listen with close attention to his keynote address. Delegates expected something to cheer it. They were in the mood for it and they were not disappointed.

Aside from the keynote speech, routine, the convention went through the motions of approving committee selection already made by the states.

Want on Committees.

Virtually no further business will be done until the committee are ready to report. All of them held meetings today and all expect the resolutions committee expected to finish its work by tomorrow.

Fights over prohibition, the league of nations and Ireland, however, promised to prolong the task of writing the platform in the resolutions committee and some of the members thought it might not be able to report for three days.

None of these questions came sharply to the surface during today's convention session, although Chairman Cummings' argument for the league of nations was interrupted by a woman at the back of the hall, who wanted to know about Ireland.

It made only a momentary stir.
When the convention adjourned it was on motion of Gavin McNab of San Francisco who moved that the adjournment be as a mark of respect and appreciation of the late Senator James H. McLaughlin who presided over the Baltimore and St.
Louis conventions which nominated President Wilson. The convention assembled at 1 p. m. tomorrow.

Scheduled to open at noon it was a full hour late when the delegates finally settled down to hear Vice Chairman Kremer's opening speech presenting National Chairman Homer S. Cummings as temporary chairman of the convention.

After the prayer by Monsignor Ryan, vicar general of St. Francis, came the singing of the official photograph, a bugle again being used to bring the convention to attention. Vice Chairman Kremer began his address by saying that he broke the frequently the speaker praised democratic performances of the last eight years and belabored the republican party as one of "destruction and reaction." He said the names of Jefferson and Jackson also stirred up demonstrations and when the league of nations covenant was mentioned a demonstration broke out which was seconded only to the demonstration given to the president. When Mr. Kremer declared the world was waiting to hear the decision of the American elections on the league issue the convention rose and went in for some prolonged cheering.

The band broke out again amid the cheering which followed conclusion of Kremer's speech but quiet soon was restored and the formal reading of the call of the convention followed.

On motion of Fred H. Lynch of Minnesota, the recommendation for the temporary organization, including Mr. Cummings as temporary chairman was adopted without dissent. Senator Phelan of California, Governor Smith of New York and Mrs. Helen Glasgow of Colorado were appointed a committee to escort Mr.
Cummings to the platform.

The chairman also got a demonstration as he marched to a plantation between a cheer fire of motion picture machines.

Again Chose Wilson.
When Mr. Cummings in his review of democratic accomplishments in winning the war referred to the leadership of President Wilson, the convention went into another demonstration despite his efforts to stop it. Repeatedly Mr. Cummings signaled to his audience not to interrupt with applause and cheers but the delegates persisted.

Mr. Cummings began in a quiet voice, a few shouts of "louder" came from far back in the hall, but he did not proceed far before the great throne was so still that every syllable was carried to the highest galleries. It was a long speech, Mr.
Cummings suggested that to his listeners, but of "go on," "take your time" met him. He drove his points home hard and his audience was alert to cap them with shouted approval. At the chairman's arrangement of republican policies, shouted
"sit down."

When Mr. Cummings characterized the Chicago platform as a matter piece of evasion a shout greeted the attack and a moment later when he declared that the "old guard" had sold the honor of the nation at Chicago to name a "reactionary candidate" it grew into a roar punc-

Back among the alternates, a woman leaped to her feet at the mention of Ireland, shouting "Irish tyranny in Ireland!"
"That's the answer," were not members of the league," Chairman Cummings called back to her, but even as he spoke the sergeant-at-arms were moving down to prevent further interruption and delegates, intent on their chairman's arrangement of republican policies, shouted
"sit down."

When Mr. Cummings characterized the Chicago platform as a matter piece of evasion a shout greeted
the attack and a moment later when
he declared that the "old guard" had
sold the honor of the nation at Chicago to name a "reactionary can-
didate" it grew into a roar punc-

Back among the alternates, a
woman leaped to her feet at the
mention of Ireland, shouting "Irish
tyranny in Ireland!"
"That's the answer," were not
members of the league," Chairman
Cummings called back to her, but
even as he spoke the sergeant-at-
arms were moving down to prevent
further interruption and delegates,
intent on their chairman's arrange-
ment of republican policies, shouted
"sit down."

McAdoo Asks Labor to Oppose Re-Establishing of Reaction

NEW YORK, June 28.—A letter written by William G. McAdoo, in which he appeals to all labor organizations to exert themselves, "energetically, intelligently and unitedly" against re-establishing of reaction in America," was made public here tonight.

The letter, under date of June 19, was in reply to a communication from John J. Munholland, secretary of the metal trades council of New York city, which informed Mr. Mc-Adoo that more than 145,000 wage earners represented by the council "recommend you as the most popular candidate for president that the democratic party could possibly nominate."

After thanking Mr. Munholland for the "unmistakable and unexpected endorsement" the letter continues:
"We are facing problems in this country and in the world which are quite not only the highest order of statesmanship, but the most patriotic and enlightened support of an intelligent electorate. These problems must be met squarely and directly. Evasion and equivocation as appeals to blind passion and selfish interests have lost their magic. Men and women are thinking these days, and thinking deeply, and it is only that party which has the couraged to explicitly declare for liberal and progressive policies and that candidate who is fearless enough to oppose them vigorously and sincerely against re-establishing of reaction and secure the votes of a majority of our countrymen in the coming election.

"The rights of humanity must be put above the rights of property, but the rights of each should be protected within its just limitations."
"As I said in a recent letter to the metal trades council of Brooklyn:
"We cannot look with complacency or indifference upon the restoration to power of the selfish forces of reaction which have been reasserting themselves with such vigor and volubility in America and throughout the world. I hope therefore, that your organization and all organizations of labor, will exert themselves energetically, intelligently and unitedly against the re-establishing of reaction in America and in the rest of the world. The great masses of the common people and therefore secure to our country the benefits and blessings which the continued triumph of genuine democracy alone can give it."

The resolutions committee. It follows:

"The democratic party demands an amendment to the federal constitution providing for ratification of treaties by majority vote so that it will be as easy to end a war as it is to declare it. Placing our trust upon the most fundamental principle of popular government, namely, the right of the people to rule—a doctrine in support of which we have recently spent over $25,000,000,000 and for which we have sacrificed 100,000 precious lives, we favor an immediate convening of the senate that this principle be established by treaty controversy and ratification secured with such reservations as a majority of the senators may agree upon, reserving for the future the right of such changes as we may deem necessary."

"We favor appointment made by the president, with the consent of the senate, of delegates to represent the people in the league until regularly chosen delegates are elected and qualified."

"We favor the selection of the nation's delegates in the league of nations by popular vote in districts in order that the people may speak through representative of their own choice in the august tribunal which will consider the welfare of the world."

"The delegates should be instructed not to accept any salary or specific instructions from congress or from the people, given by referendum vote."

"Our nation's delegates should also be instructed to insist upon the disarmament of the world in order that the burden of militarism may be lifted from the shoulders of those who toil and the foundation of the enduring peace laid in friendship and co-operation."

The plank follows Mr. Bryan's demand for a majority rule and was regarded as fundamentally opposed to the administration's desires for a declaration for ratification without destructive reservations.

Mr. Bryan's league plank is regarded by administration democrats at the convention as embodying much the same proposals as the one brought out at the Jackson day dinner in Washington and which signaled a rift between the president and Mr. Bryan over the issue. It proposed that the treaty be ratified with such reservations as a majority of the senate might agree upon was rejected then by all administration leaders in the treaty fight.

State commissions, similar to the federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a plank on profiteering proposed by William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all unnecessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among producers that will bring those who sell and those who use nearer together. It will enact and enforce laws that will effectively prevent men as are necessary. To this end it will demand legislation subjecting to the penalties of the criminal law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out instructions that result in extortion; it will make it unlawful for anyone to engage in interstate commerce to make the sale of one article dependant upon the purchase of another article; it will require such corporations to disclose to customers the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit that can be legally charged as the rate of interest is now limited. It will also endeavor to create in the several states trade commissions with powers as ample as those of the federal trade commission and then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

State commission, similar to the
federal trade commission, to protect profiteering, are a feature of a
plank on profiteering proposed by
William J. Bryan. It is as follows:

"The democratic party pledges nation to rid it of the profiteer and to
close the door against the return of
it will endeavor to eliminate all un-
necessary middlemen by the encouragement of organizations among
producers that will bring those who
sell and those who use nearer to-
gether. It will enact and enforce
laws that will effectively prevent
men as are necessary. To this end
it will demand legislation subject-
ing to the penalties of the criminal
law all corporate officers and employees who give or carry out in-
structions that result in extortion; it
will make it unlawful for anyone to
engage in interstate commerce to
make the sale of one article de-
pendant upon the purchase of an-
other article; it will require such
corporations to disclose to customers
the difference between cost price
and selling price or limit the profit
that can be legally charged as the
rate of interest is now limited. It
will also endeavor to create in the
several states trade commissions
with powers as ample as those of
the federal trade commission and
then enact laws authorizing each

TALK OF M'ADOO GAINS AT FRISCO

Continued from page one.

McAdoo, in view of reports of previous declarations of intention, was pursuing a wise course in remaining silent.

Palmer people continued their efforts to make a strong showing on the opening ballot and the Cox people were doing the same. About the only point the three forces would agree upon was that there would be no nomination on the first ballot and most of them seemed to agree that there would be no nomination in less than three to five months.

The debate for second place agreed upon Ben H. Arnold, Wichita, Kansas, as their floor leader and at the same time began picking out a representative on each of the state delegations. His selection was made at a conference of McAdoo statesiders, who proclaimed themselves as "bitter enders." Cox Johnson of Texas, former solicitor of the state department, representative of Whatley of South Carolina, and Mrs. Peter Clemen of Minnesota were among the assistants selected for Arnold.

Most McAdoo backers are saying they do not expect any support from the Tammany delegation of New York unless it becomes apparent that the former mayor will be nominated. Talk of Secretary Meredith for second place as McAdoo's running mate continued in the convention gossip.

The talk on candidates tonight is almost where it was last week, without any appearance of strength enough for a nomination at any corner of the triangle. Mr. Bryan and most others still feel that the question of candidates will not become a thoroughly active one until the platform issues have been disposed of. Administration supporters said tonight they were confident that the platform would be written in thorough-going terms of support for President Wilson and his administration and many of the predicted issues will contain neither a wet nor a dry plank.

Ignore Divorce Story.
The attitude of the Cox managers toward publication here on the eve of the convention of the governor's divorce of ten years ago was to ignore it entirely.

Edmond H. Moore, manager for the Cox candidacy, said he had no statement to make and referred inquiries to another party. Moore, Governor Cox's home town, to learn what Ohio people most familiar with the circumstances thought.

Cox delegates pointed out that in a case of this kind, the divorce case against bitter opposition, the divorce case had never been brought into a campaign.

This leaders insisted that the published story was a matter to be ignored by any sentiment against divorce that might exist among women delegates. The Cox people today were conducting an investigation to develop who brought out the story at this time and to make plain the object.

Senator Pomerene of Ohio today disclaimed all responsibility for the statements in explanation of Governor Cox's divorce proceedings of ten years ago as published this morning in the San Francisco Chronicle.

"I am not responsible for that story," he said. "Senator Pomerene."
"Some of the statements in it regarding the divorce proceedings are absolutely new to me. I never heard of them. For instance, the statement that Mrs. Cox married her former lawyer."

Senator Pomerene said he had discussed the governor's divorce case privately with a few delegates but has given no statement for publication.

Walsh Retires;
Supports Rival

Continued from page one.

proceed to the nomination of a ticket before adopting a party platform. It was suggested that this be done in order to expedite the proceedings of the convention, as it was generally understood that the drafting of the platform would take some time.

Senator Glass was not prepared to local community to create, as needed, similar commissions for the investigation of local charges of profiteering.

The cause to punish profiteering by corporation officers, Mr. Bryan said, is designed to meet court declinations preventing prison sentences being imposed on corporation officers.

Another plank dealing with the treaty of Versailles and the league of nations is to be made public tomorrow by Mr. Bryan.

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound
and Recovered.

Newark, N. J.—"The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered for and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my housework and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Purifier and I hope my friends are taking them to advantage.
You can use my name for a testimonial."—Mrs. THERESA COVENTRY, 75 Burnett St., Newark, N. J.

You are invited to write for free advice.
No other medicine has been so successful in relieving women's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

Calomel Dying
FAST IN SOUTH

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Taking the Place of Dangerous, Sickening Drug.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's Dodson's guarantee: Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money back.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work.
Take a spoonful of harmless, harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterward.

—ADVT.

name the subcommittee to work on the platform at once and plans went forward for the full committee to hear some of those who suggested planks to offer.

In supporting Senator Glass' nomination, Senator Walsh said that while he had been a candidate for the chairmanship he felt he could do his party a great service by withdrawing in favor of Mr. Glass. Mr.
Walsh, according to reports of the secret session, also stated that the candidacy had been based solely on a desire to render party service.

Senator Walsh of Massachusetts was elected secretary of the committee.

Hearings Opened.
The hearings began immediately in the open session, were before the full committee. Governor Stuyvesant of Montana, who has not yet suggested for planks promising reclamation, irrigation and other development of natural resources, particularly in the western states.

Adequate child labor law and reiteration of the party's stand against the employment of children in industry.

"Continuation of the federal child-labor bureau and of the women's bureau organized during the war."

"Independent citizenship for women so that an American woman would not lose her citizenship by marrying an alien."

"Proper protection and aid for maternity."

"Woman's representation on important government commissions."

"More attention to education with better salaries for teachers."

Platform builders of the democratic national convention got down to their real work late tonight with the organization of the resolutions committee with Senator Glass of Virginia and the designation of a subcommittee of nine to draft the party declaration of principles.

With all prospects of a fight against administration leadership swept away and William J. Bryan excluded from the sub-commitee membership, while Bainbridge Colby, President Wilson's secretary of state, was included, the sub-committee will tomorrow get down to the actual work of whipping the planks into shape for presentation to the convention.

By action of the rules committee, taken while the platform committee was organizing, the convention can go ahead hearing the speeches placing various candidates in nomination, while the platform is being built, but no balloting for a nominee can go on until after the platform has been accepted by the convention.

A fight against Senator Glass as chairman collapsed and the name of his opponent, Senator Walsh of Montana, was not pressed. Senator Walsh, however, was selected by Senator Glass as a member of the sub-committee which is expected to present the views of those who disagree with the administration views on the treaty.

Senator Glass and Senator Mc-Kellar both were consistent supporters of the president during both senate fights over the treaty, but Senator Walsh voted on the second ratification roll call for ratification with the republican reservations.

William Jennings Bryan, leading the fight for a dry plank, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, who has a blank of his own which does not advocate ratification of the treaty, and W. Bourke Cockran of New York, who is spokesman for advocates of an Irish recognition plank, all are members of the full committee, but none of them was chosen by Senator Glass to membership on the subcommittee.

In some quarters the make-up of the subcommittee was interpreted as forecasting that the principal fight over these three leading issues would come, not in the subcommitee, but in the deliberations of the full committee and of the convention itself when it comes to review the subcommittee's work.

Before the subcommittee began work the full committee opened its doors to a host of individuals and organizations waiting to suggest platform planks.

GOOD NEWS!
ECZEMA
Is Only Skin Deep

and may be instantly relieved and quickly healed by CRANOLENE the Cranberry Cream treatment —used externally.

PROOF
Doverbury, Ky., Jan. 7, 1918.
"Cranoleene cured me of Eczema and I had the disease for 25 years. It also cured my little 15 year old daughter of the same trouble. It did for us what no other treatment would do—cured us to stay cured. We used Cranoleene May 1916."—E. H. Ench, (On March 20, 1920, four years after, Mr.
Ench again writes: "My little girl and I are both well. We are free of Eczema, and we give your Cranoleene the praise.")

SCIENCE has discovered that the mild acid-like juice found under the skin of the common table cranberry quickly destroys the tiny parasite that causes Eczema and most skin troubles. This cranberry juice has been combined with soothing, cooling, healing oils. The result is CRANOLENE, an amazing cream that stamps out the cause of Eczema and restores the skin to its natural health and color.